

15 ways to help your child soar!

1. Talk about what they learned. Have your child explain their thinking and understanding.
2. Look through their folder each day. Read the weekly newsletter. Know what your child is doing.
3. Read to them, with them or listen to them read.
4. Problem solve with your child. Don't just tell them the answer.
5. Exercise with your child. A healthy body makes a health mind. Physical activity builds mental and physical stamina.
6. Reinforce skills at home and practice.
7. Encourage independence. Have your child get things ready for school, put their coat on, zip it.
8. Set goals with your child. Let your child tell you their goals. Tell your child the goals you have for them.
9. Talk about the skills that successful people have. (Hard working, honest, always do your best, problem solver, neat, good listener)
10. Talk about how to be a kind person.
11. Identify when your child makes good decisions.
12. Redirect bad choices.
13. Be involved in your child's education. You are a partner in their education.
14. Let your child know how proud you are of them.
15. Encourage your child to become the best they can be.