

READ YOUR HEART OUT™

Program Dates:

October 1, 2012 - March 31, 2013

Dear Parents-

Thank you for taking an active role in encouraging your child to read!

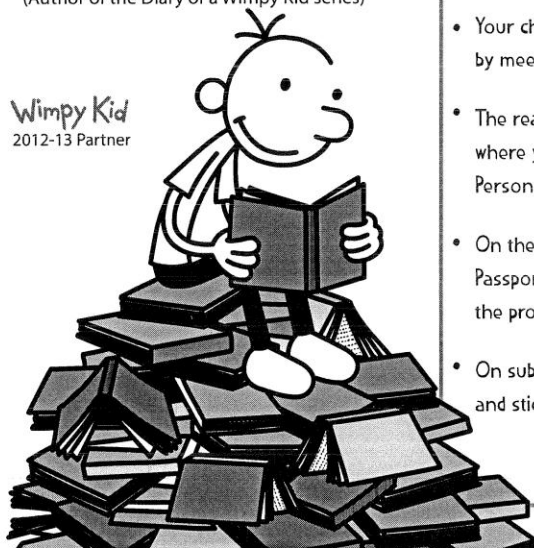

When I was young, my parents modeled good reading habits for me. My mother filled our house with books and my father introduced me to classic comic books from his own childhood. I learned that through reading, you can discover new worlds or simply see things from a different point of view.

You can foster a love of reading in your child by providing them with reading materials that pertain to their interests. Books, magazines, comics, web sites... it all counts!

Thank you for participating in the BOOK IT!® Program and for planting the seeds to turn your child into a lifelong reader.
